

DE-DEMOCRATISATION, GENDER+ AND THE POLITICS OF EXCLUSION IN EUROPE
Baeza, Jaen, Spain, November 6-8, 2019

PROGRAM

DAY 1: 6th November 2019

10.00-10.15: Welcome and Introduction

Ruth Rubio Marín
Emanuela Lombardo

10.15-11.45: Panel Session 1: Causes of De-democratisation and Opposition to Gender+ Politics and Politics

Chair/discussant (7-10 min): Johanna Kantola
(15 min presentation per paper)

Spanish gender equality policies after the rise of the far-right: Towards a new backlash?

Alba Alonso, University of Santiago de Compostela
Julia Espinosa, University of Cádiz

Explaining Opposition to Same-Sex Unions
Martijn Mos, Leiden University

11.45-12.15: Coffee Break

12.15-14.00: Panel Session 2: New Understandings of the Concept of De-Democratisation: A Feminist Perspective

Chair/discussant: Mieke Verloo

What de-democratization is about when looking into the undoing of the demos from a feminist perspective

Petra Meier, University of Antwerp

Democracy and Demography: framing social threat intersectionally
Myra Marx Ferree, University of Wisconsin-Madison

De-democratisation and Varieties of Gender Regimes
Sylvia Walby, City, University of London

14.00-15.30: Lunch Break

15.30-17.15: Panel Session 3: Challenging Established Theories: The intersection of De-democratisation and Gender

Chair/discussant: Myra Marx Ferree

Right-wing authoritarian politics and gender. A Polanyian perspective
Birgit Sauer, University of Vienna

Reconfiguring state movement relations in the context of de-democratization
Andrea Krizsan, Central European University
Conny Roggeband, University of Amsterdam

European integration and disintegration: Feminist perspectives on democracy and de-democratization

Johanna Kantola, University of Tampere
Emanuela Lombardo, Universidad Complutense de Madrid

17.15-17.30: Coffee Break

17.30-18.15: World Café Debate Session on key questions of the day

Facilitators: panel chairs and volunteer(s)-note-taker(s)

Plan: 3 small groups matching each panel, choose one and enjoy the debate, take notes of key points to share next day

20.00-21.30 Dinner

DAY 2: 7th November 2019

10.00-10.15: Recap from the World Café Debate Session of the Previous Day

Facilitators: panel chairs of the previous day and volunteer(s)-note-taker(s) share key points of debates (5 minutes per group)

10.15-12.00: Panel Session 4: The Politics of knowledge, truth and the media in current De-democratisation processes

Chair/discussant: Birgit Sauer

De-democratization and the politics of knowledge

Mieke Verloo, Radboud University
David Paternotte, Université Libre de Bruxelles

De-democratization rituals: marches, fetuses and post-secularism

Ignacio Pichardo, Universidad Complutense de Madrid
Mónica Cornejo, Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Thinking of De-democratization, Gender+ and Contemporary Politics of Exclusion from a Media Perspective.

Claudia Padovani

12.00-12.30: Coffee Break

12.30-14.00: Panel Session 5: Causes of De-democratisation and Opposition to Gender+ Politics and Politics: The Role of Feminist Movements?
Chair/discussant: Conny Roggeband

Silencing Feminism? The imagined nation of the Spanish far-right and its challenges to gender violence

Marta Cabezas, Universidad Autónoma de Madrid

Governmental attacks on “gender ideology” in Hungary – Challenges for conceptualizations of de-democratization

Eszter Kováts, University ELTE, Budapest

14.00-15.30: Lunch Break

15.30-17.00: Panel Session 6: Resistance, Responses, Alliances
Chair/discussant: Andrea Krizsan

The Challenge to Reframe (Gender) Equality and Social Justice: Contending with neo-nationalism

Birte Siim, Aalborg University

The ties that fight. The integrative power of online feminist networks

Elena Pavan, University of Trento

17.00-17.15: Coffee Break

17.15-18.00: World Café Debate Session on key puzzles of the day

Facilitators: panel chairs and volunteer(s)-note-taker(s)

Plan: 3 small groups matching each panel, choose one and enjoy the debate, take notes of key points to share next day

20.00-21.30 Dinner

21.30-22.30 Night City Visit

DAY 3: 8th November 2019

9.00-9.15: Recap from the World Café Debate Session of the Previous Day

Facilitators: panel chairs of the previous day and volunteer(s)-note-taker(s) share key points of debates (5 minutes per group)

9.30-11.00: Panel Session 7: Conclusions and Ways Forwards

Facilitators of 4 parallel groups: Ruth Rubio Marin, Emanuela Lombardo, Mieke Verloo, Birgit Sauer

World Café Format to discuss the following topics:

- a. Content: overarching themes discussed in the conference.*
- b. Publication plans: Special Issue(s), next Conferences.*
- c. Furthering the network and sources of financing*
- d. Focusing on Action: Preparing for the following De-democratization and Gender+ conference; other strategies, alliances, etc.*

11.00-11.30 Coffee Break

11.30-12.00 Recap from World Café Session and Concluding Words

Ruth Rubio Marin

Emanuela Lombardo

Mieke Verloo